

Original Joe's Heritage Classic 2011

2-7 p.m. @ Glenora Community League
February 20, 2011

Dads of Glenora Community League:
Suit up for neighbourhood bragging rights in a fun afternoon of hockey and activities. Join the white team or the blue team, and hit the ice for the Heritage Classic hockey game.

Always wanted to hip check your neighbour?

This event will be fun for the whole family. Activities include hayrides, snowshoe races, tug-of-war, and dancing with music from a live DJ.

Now you can!

Kids can enjoy free s'mores and hot chocolate. Everyone else can warm up with Tim Hortons coffee, or grab a cold one in the heated beer gardens.

Oh, did we mention this family-friendly event is free?

(other than alcohol)

The day will wrap up with a spectacular fireworks show.

Hope to see you there!
